SUFFRAGISTS ADOPT NEW PLAN OF BATTLE

Stanton Club Decides to Carry Arguments for Votes to Floors of Conventions Held Here.

The woman suffrage question will enter into the business of every convention that meets in Washington in future if plans made by the Elizabeth C. Stanton States Suffrage Club last night are carried out. At a meeting in the Public Library a special committee was named to get per-mission of organizations that meet here to listen to a suffrage speaker.

Local suffragists feel that, like the men

AN APOLOGY

In awarding the prizes in The Herald's recent contest on the advantages of "Last-minute Shopping News" as presented in the morning newspapers, the judges were guided solely by the merit of the answers submitted—whether the letter was written by a man or a woman made no difference. The letter that was awarded the first prize was signed "J. A. Braendle," which, of course, looked like a man's signature, and was so treated in the news of the contest which appeared on Monday. Yesterday the advertising manager received the following letter of acknowledgment:

THE RESIDENCE OF STREET, STREET

To Mr. Troland Cleare,

Advertising Manager, The Washington Herald.

Dear Sir: This morning I received the check for $25 awarded me by The Herald as first prize in its recent advertising contest.

I sincerely thank the newspaper for the same and you for the courteous letter which accompanied it.

Very respectfully, yours,

(Miss) JOSEPHINE A. BRAENDLE.

The Hersid regrets that the sex of the first prize winner was not clear at the time the announcement of the award was made, and takes this opportunity to express its pleasure in awarding the first prize to a woman, for, after all, it is the women who decide most of the affairs of life.

Wilson Sets Thanksgiving Date

Pictures U. S. Peace Blessings

The President yesterday issued the following proclamation

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing for us.

"Another year of peace has been youchsafed us; another year in which not only to take thought of our duty to ourselves and to mankind, but also to adjust ourselves to the many responsibilities thrust upon us by a war which has involved almost the whole of Europe. We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have had to deal and while we have asserted rights we have been able also to perform duties and exercise privileges of succor and helpfulness which should serve to demonstrate our desire to make the offices of friendship the means of truly disinterested and unselfish service. Our ability to serve all who could avail themselves of our services in the midst of crises has been increased, by a gracious Providence, by more and more abundant crops; our ample financial resources have enabled us to steady the markets of the world and facilitate necessary movements of commerce which the war might otherwise have rendered impossible; and our people have come more and more to a sober realization of the part they have been called upon to play in a time when all the world is shaken by unparalleled distresses and disasters. The extraordinary circumstances of such a time have done much to quicken our national consciousness and deepen and confirm our confidence in the principles of peace-and freedom by which we have always sought to be guided. Out of darkness and perplexity have come firmer counsels of policy and clearer perceptions of the essential welfare of the nation. We have prospered while other peoples were at war, but our prosperity has been vouchsafed us, we believe, only that we might the better perform the functions which war rendered it impossible for them to perform.

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 25th of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fortieth, "WOODROW WILSON."

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

"When will the sildes permanently stop?"

"That's as easy to predict as the end of the European war," is the answer. The removal, bodily, of the two mountains, Gold and Contractors, being blasted away and the earth sluiced down to fill hills and valleys a mile distant, is expected to stop the slides. That the slides will sometime stop forever—"some day"—is certain. This is confidently stated by Gov. Goethals. The worst slides, it is believed, are now over. The last was the worst since the "big ditch" was opened.

"Shoring off" of the precipitous mountains which form the giant boundaries of Gaillard cut is the gradual, slow process which will prevent future slides.

Gold hill has been known as the Jonah of the "cut" Contractors hill.

Gold hill has been known as the Jonah of the "cut." Contractors hill, another source of bad slides, is al-most straight across. These are the only two important slide danger points remaining in the "cut." When construction was first begun the sides of Gold hill were almost perpendicular. Now they have been cut away to a very slanting angle and will soon be reduced to a point where slide danger will be al-most removed.
